

MEDEA is a regional network of practitioners and other actors in the field of security based in the Mediterranean and Black Sea countries founded by the European Commission 2018-2023

It aims at building four communities of practitioners and bring them closer with security R&D in order to strengthen security, safety, and resilience in the fields of:

Migration flows and asylum seekers

Border management and surveillance

Cross-border terrorism and organized crime

Natural hazards and technological accidents

BUILD

A scenario-driven technology solution roadmap published in the Mediterranean Security Research and Innovation Agenda (MSRIA)

DEFINE

Mediterranean and Black Sea regional security priorities
EU Policy on emerging challenges to European Security

IMPROVE

Collaboration among security institutions and actors from different disciplines and different EU Member States

MEDEA is funded by the European Union's Horizon 2020 – Research and Innovation Framework Programme, under grant agreement no 787111
