Executive summary

The present deliverable (D8.3) is entitled “Security Requirements Guidelines” and introduces the procedures to characterize the security levels of the project deliverables. The EU recommendations for the H2020 research outcomes detailed in the “Guidelines for the classification of information in research projects”, and certain EU Council decisions are first introduced and then analysed to explain the dissemination level assigned to project deliverables. As such this deliverable will thoroughly present the dissemination levels of all MEDEA deliverables as it is currently documented in the project’s Description of Action.

The research outcomes that will result from MEDEA activities, aside their dissemination level, they will be reviewed by the Security Committee (SC) of MEDEA project, which was appointed after the partners interactions during the first six months of the project. All the reported results will be thoroughly scrutinized and revised by the SC in accordance with the DELC and Risk Assessment requirements described in Deliverables D8.1 – “Establishment of DELC and requirements during the project lifetime” and D9.5 - “M - Requirement No. 9” before their submission to ECAS portal.
